REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF FRIENDS FOR CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Opinion

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of FRIENDS FOR CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT (the Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as at 31st October 2023 and the statement of comprehensive income, statements of changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes.

In my opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FRIENDS FOR CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT as at 31st October 2023 and of its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities (IFRS for SMEs).

Basis for Unqualified Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. I am independent of the FRIENDS FOR CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) together ethical requirements that are relevant to my audit of the financial statements in Belize, and I have fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the IESBA Code.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my unqualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing, I exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statement or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statement, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Organization to express an opinion on the financial statement.
 I am responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the Organization's audit. I remain solely responsible for my audit opinion.

I communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

I also provide those charged with governance with a statement that I have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, ESTIMATES, AND JUDGEMENTS

These financial statements are prepared in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities (IFRS for SMEs) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). Unless otherwise stated, monetary amounts are stated in Belize dollars. The accounting policies outlined in Note 2 have been consistently applied to all periods presented.

The significant accounting policies used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarized below.

2.1 General

Use of estimates, assumptions, and management judgement

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to make subjective estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, net income, and related disclosures. Estimates made by management are based on historical experience and other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable. Key sources of estimation uncertainty include: impairment and useful lives of property and equipment, and accrued liabilities. Accordingly, actual results may differ from these and other estimates thereby impacting future financial statements. Refer to the relevant accounting policies in this note 2 for details on management's use of estimates and assumptions.

2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, ESTIMATES, AND JUDGEMENTS (continued)

2.2 Financial instruments - recognition and measurement

FCD applies the provisions of both Section 11 and Section 12 of the IFRS for SMEs to account for all of its financial instruments.

Initial recognition of a financial asset or liability:

FCD recognizes a financial asset or financial liability when the organization becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand and deposits held on call with financial institutions. Cash held for specific projects are classified as restricted cash balances.

Accounts receivable and prepayments:

Accounts receivable and prepayments are initially measured at the transaction price (including transaction costs) and are subsequently measured at the undiscounted amount of cash or other consideration expected to be received.

At the end of each reporting period, management assesses whether there is objective evidence of impairment on accounts receivable and prepayments. Objective evidence includes significant financial difficulty of the debtor, breach in contract, probability of bankruptcy, and repayment trends. Impairment is measured as the difference between the carrying value and the discounted estimated future cash flows. When objective evidence exists, the impairment is recorded immediately.

Trade and other payables:

Trade and other payables are recognized on an accrual basis, when goods or services are received. Payables are recognized initially at the transaction price (including transaction costs) and are subsequently measured at the undiscounted amount of cash or other consideration expected to be paid.

Interest:

Interest is recognized in interest income and interest expense in the statements of comprehensive income for all interest bearing financial instruments using the effective interest method.

All amounts are expressed in Belize dollars

Derecognition of a financial asset or liability:

Financial assets are derecognized on the statement of financial position when FCD's contractual rights to the cash flows from the assets have expired, when FCD retains the right to receive the cash flows of the assets but assume an obligation to pay those cash flows to a third party, or when FCD has transferred the contractual rights to receive the cash flows to a third party.

Financial liabilities are derecognized on the statement of financial position when FCD's obligation specified in the contract expires, is discharged, or is cancelled. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability and the consideration paid is recognized in the statement of comprehensive income.

2.3 Property and equipment

Property and equipment are carried at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying value or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to FCD and the cost can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to income during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Land is not depreciated as its useful life cannot be estimated. Depreciation on other property and equipment is calculated using the straight line method at the following rates:

Buildings and improvements	5% to 20%
Motor vehicles	25%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Computer and field equipment	20%

When property and equipment are disposed of by sale or scrapping, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in the statement of comprehensive income.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount. Any impairment loss is charged to the statement of comprehensive income immediately.

All amounts are expressed in Belize dollars

2.4 Provisions

Provisions are liabilities of uncertain timing or amount and are recognized when FCD has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured as the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the reporting date. Significant judgement is required to determine whether a present obligation exists and in estimating the probability, timing and amount of any cash outflows. Provisions are recorded related to litigation, future employee benefits, and other items. Provisions are recorded on the basis of all available information at the end of the reporting period. In the event that results differ from management expectations, FCD may incur expenses in excess of the provisions recognized.

2.5 Employee benefit obligations

Termination benefit - severance:

FCD recognises termination benefits in accordance with the labour laws of Belize. Employees who have been continuously employed for a period of five to ten years are entitled to one week's wages in respect of each complete year of service. Employees who have been continuously employed for a period over ten years are entitled to one week's wages in respect of each complete year of service prior to 31st December 2011 and two week's wages in respect of each complete year of service for the period served thereafter.

2.6 Income recognition

FCD's income includes grants from a number of different sources and classifies the income based on funds restricted to be used for a specific purpose and funds which are not restricted. FCD's income also includes oversight fees for various projects, contributions (in kind) and other miscellaneous income. Income is comprised of the fair value of consideration received or receivable. Non-monetary grants, such as fixed assets, are accounted for at fair value.

Income is recognized when the amount of income can be reliably measured and it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity. Restricted grant income is not recognized until specific services have been rendered or goods delivered in accordance with the grant agreement. Income which has been received and not yet recognized is recorded as deferred income on the statement of financial position.

All amounts are expressed in Belize dollars

2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, ESTIMATES, AND JUDGEMENTS (continued)

2.7 Expense recognition

Expenses are recognized on the accrual basis in the period the goods are received or services

2.8 Translation of foreign currencies

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated in Belize dollars at rates prevailing at the date of the statement of financial position. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the translation and settlement of these items are recognized in the statement of comprehensive income. Non-monetary assets and liabilities in foreign denominations are translated into Belize dollars at historical rates.
